Airport of Entry. This is a combination military and civil airport that is fast and easy to use when going down the West Coast of Baja. People are courteous and friendly. Lots of military activity here but that is all part of the fun.

Ensenada

Ensenada is the home of the Titanic. This block buster film was made here in 1997 and 1998.

The main attraction in this fun and busy city seems to be Hussong's Cantina, a place where the local folks, including miners and ranchers, mingle with the tourists and college kids.

Hotels include the Mision Santa Isabel, the Hotel Coral & Marina, and the standard Hotel La Pinta.
